Title of the Evaluation Report	Report of Final Evaluation Integrating Gender in Peace Support Operations
Report sequence number	0	Date of Review	01 February 2018	Year of the Evaluation Report
Region	Eastern and Southern Africa		Country(ies)	Kenya
Executive Summary in Final Report	Partly		TORs sent with Report	Yes
OVERALL RATING			Overall Rating	Good
Executive Feedback on Overall Rating	This is a robust evaluation report that draws on both qualitative and quantitative analysis to produce recommendations that are relevant to the purpose. It would benefit in some places with more extensive analysis, and a stronger executive summary would help to make it even more usable.
PARAMETER 1: OBJECT AND CONTEXT OF THE EVALUATION			PARAMETER 1	Good
Executive Feedback on Parameter 2	The report describes the broad theory of change alongside the key expected results; and demonstrates the potential for adding even greater value if this analysis had been extended into a more nuanced analysis of each stage of the theory of change. The presentation of key stakeholders and implementation status is very comprehensive.
PARAMETER 2: PURPOSE, OBJECTIVES AND SCOPE			PARAMETER 2	Good
Executive Feedback on Parameter 2	The purpose and scope of the evaluation are accurately portrayed; but the report unfortunately mixes the evaluation objectives with the project objectives, and this would benefit from clarification.
PARAMETER 3: METHODOLOGY			PARAMETER 3	Good
Executive Feedback on Parameter 3	The methods section covers all of the required areas; it would only benefit from some more technical depth in a few specific issues. These include the overall design approach, and an explanation of how the single male evaluator addressed issues of power.
PARAMETER 4: FINDINGS			PARAMETER 4	Good
Executive Feedback on Parameter 4	The findings are based on objective data and are strong at explaining the factors contributing to the accomplishment and non-accomplishment of results.
PARAMETER 5: CONCLUSIONS AND LESSONS LEARNED			PARAMETER 5	Good
Executive Feedback on Parameter 5	The conclusions are brief, but systematic. There is a good assessment of strengths and weakness, and useful cross referencing to specific pieces of evidence.
PARAMETER 6: RECOMMENDATIONS			PARAMETER 6	Good
Executive Feedback on PARAMETER 6	The recommendations are short, but relevant to the purpose. They are small in number and list who is being targeted.
PARAMETER 7: GENDER AND HUMAN RIGHTS			PARAMETER 7	Meets Requirements

Executive Feedback on PARAMETER 7	The evaluation scope and objectives explicitly addressed gender equality and human rights. Indicators refer to the consideration of gender, although they are generally institutional rather than gender-specific. The evaluation included standalone criterion on gender equality and human rights; but ensured that it was not siloed by having questions that cut across multiple criteria. The evaluation applied a participatory qualitative approach to data collection; and this ensured that issues of gender equality were captured. However, the methods for data analysis did not include clear mechanisms for ensuring participatory interpretation of the evidence. The findings address gender equality specifically in a standalone section based on the evaluation matrix. However, this is very short and not a full analysis. Conclusions and recommendations are clearly derived from the findings.
PARAMETER 8: THE REPORT STRUCTURE		PARAMETER 8	Good
Executive Feedback on PARAMETER 8	The report is logically structured and easy to navigate. It communicates key messages clearly. The executive summary, however, is very concise and misses several key pieces of information.
