PARAMETER 7: GENDER AND HUMAN RIGHTS			PARAMETER 7	Meets Requirements

The evaluation objectives and scope implicitly address GEEW because of the object of the evaluation, but do not make explicit reference to GE/HR analysis nor frameworks. Evaluation and interview questions recognized and addressed gender equality and human rights issues and disaggregated data were sought and utilized throughout the evaluation process. Gender equality and human rights considerations guided the selection of interviewees and participants of surveys and were also integrated into the Executive Feedback on data collection methodology and evaluation tools PARAMETER 7 The evaluation adopted a participatory approach, but this was predominantly in relation to data collection - with less evidence in the report for paricipatory processes during analysis and validation. The use of gender as a sampling criteria for selection of informants is innovative and a useful example. Findings, conclusions and recommendtions all systematically address GEEW; and lessons are also provided. Very Good PARAMETER 8: THE REPORT STRUCTURE PARAMETER 8 A well written, logically organised, and comprehsive report. Executive Feedback on PARAMETER 8
