Location: Home-based
Application deadline: 10 November 2020, Ukraine midnight time
Type of contract: Consultant – Special Service Agreement (SSA)
Post level: Short-term International Consultant

Duration of assignment: 35 days between 14 January 2021 and 18 June 2021

1. Background of the initiatives

UN Women, grounded in the vision of equality enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations, works for the elimination of discrimination against women and girls; the empowerment of women; and the achievement of equality between women and men as partners and beneficiaries of development, human rights, humanitarian action and peace and security. UN Women Ukraine implements its Country Strategy for 2018-2022, covering the following thematic areas: 1) Making gender equality priorities central to national reforms, governance, planning and budgeting; 2) Ending violence against women and girls; and 3) Strengthening implementation of the Women, Peace and Security (WPS) agenda.

Ukraine has joined and adopted most of the key international and regional gender equality, women’s empowerment and human rights frameworks, and integrated these commitments into a number of national laws and policies. Ukraine joined the Beijing Platform for Action (BPAF) and ratified key women’s human rights treaties, including the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW) and its Optional Protocol; localized the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) with gender equality placed centrally in 10 of 17 Goals, 25 of 86 targets and 45 of 172 indicators; signed the EU Association Agreement; ratified the European Convention on Human Rights and the European Social Charter; and signed the Istanbul Convention (pending ratification). The principle of equal rights of women and men¹ is enshrined in the Constitution of Ukraine and the country adopted a solid policy and legal framework, namely the National Action Plan on the CEDAW Concluding Observations², the revised National Action Plan for the Implementation of UNSCR 1325 for 2016–2020 (the second NAP 1325 is currently under development and is expected to be finalized by the end of 2020)³, the National Strategy on Human Rights (2016-2020)⁴ and the State Programme on Equal Rights and Opportunities for Women and Men by 2021⁵, which builds on the BPfA, SDGs and CEDAW, and integrates the measures to address multiple forms of discrimination.

Despite these significant efforts, gender equality and human rights are yet to become an integral part of the reforms, recovery or peacebuilding processes. Gender equality and human rights priorities need to be further mainstreamed in the reforms, sectoral policies and plans.

The on-going conflict in Eastern Ukraine aggrivated further women’s well-being, as the likelihood of experiencing all forms of violence in Eastern Ukraine is significantly higher among the conflict affected women (79% compared to 58%). Women remain underrepresented in decision-making, recovery and peace processes, have limited access to economic resources, and are subject to discrimination. Young women and girls from the conflict affected communities in Luhansk region with high presence of military, are concerned of increased sexual harassment and exposure to risk of sexual violence.

In 2020 Ukraine – as many other countries around the globe – has faced an unprecedented challenge and hardship in ensuring proper prevention and response to the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) which risks becoming a long-lasting impediment to health, social and economic recovery. The COVID-19 crisis is likely to have a profound and negative multidimensional impact on Ukraine, hitting hardest the most vulnerable, and having disproportionate effect on women and men. Based on the Rapid Gender Assessment (RGA)⁶ on the impact of COVID-19, the pandemic will further widen the existing gender inequalities, due to the existing structural discrimination and prevailing gender norms and stereotypes, as well as the limited representation of women in decision-making processes and the overall exclusion of the gender equality mechanism in the COVID-19 planning and response. In the context of the conflict affected regions in Ukraine, this can lead to further deterioration of human security, livelihood and well-being of women and girls.

The Ukraine Strategic SN is based on a theory of change informed by evidence-based gender analysis and national consultations and articulates the strategic impact areas and results expected to be achieved from 2018-2022. The overarching goal of Ukraine SN is to empower

³Ukraine, The NAP 1325 is available at: http://zakon.rada.gov.ua/laws/show/997-2018-%D0%BF;
⁶Rapid Gender Assessment (available at: https://eca.unwomen.org/en/digital-library/publications/2020/05/rapid-gender-assessment-of-the-situation-and-needs-of-women?fbclid=IwAR36T71bz8MC5Dtw88RKiLuy49jFGESehKVOa83j3pMTH5uSDmMb951Pg)
women and girls and ensure full enjoyment of their human rights towards a peaceful and gender equal society in Ukraine (Annex 1: SN TOC). The theory of change underpinning the SN stipulates is that if women, particularly those facing multiple forms of discrimination, equally participate in and benefit from gender-responsive reforms and have increased access to justice, and if transformative changes in social norms, attitudes and behaviors are achieved at community and individual levels to prevent GBV, and if women, particularly those affected by the conflict, equally benefit from state policies, programmes and local plans related to security, justice and recovery, and if the entire UN system delivers on its commitments to gender equality and women's empowerment, then all Ukrainian women and girls will be able to exercise their rights equally with men and boys and equally contribute to and benefit from development, because:

- National reforms, policies, plans and budgets are gender-responsive; better quality gender data informs the development, monitoring and evaluation of effective and evidence-based reforms; the justice system provides accountability mechanisms for the enforcement of laws and policies and ending impunity for women's rights violations;

- Favorable social norms, attitudes and behaviors are promoted to prevent GBV before it occurs/re-occurs; more cities have safe and empowering public spaces ensuring women and girls can fully exercise their rights and freedom of movement to participate in public life;

- Commitments on WPS are effectively implemented through security sector and other reforms; and more gender equality advocates will influence recovery, peace and security processes.

UN Women plans to conduct an evaluation of its approach, work and results in the key strategic areas of its Strategic Note pertaining to Ending Violence against Women and Girls, informed by contributions of two projects - “Building democratic, peaceful and gender equal society in Ukraine” funded by the Government of Norway and “Decentralisation and Law Enforcement Reforms: Transformative approaches to Gender Equality and Women’s Empowerment in Ukraine” funded by the Government of Denmark. Both projects' outcomes are closely interlinked and aim to generate positive change both vertically and horizontally at all levels and jointly contribute to the results in the area of Ending Violence Against Women and Girls. The projects also contribute to the Outcome 1 “Governance, Leadership and Participation” and Outcome 3 “Women, Peace and Security”.

The evaluation is expected to provide forward-looking and actionable recommendations in the context of the project’s interventions and also beyond those and aim to inform further management decisions, planning and programming strategies of the CO.

Against this background, UN Women seeks to hire one International Evaluation Consultant (Team Lead) for conducting the gender-responsive evaluation of UN Women work in the 3 Outcome Areas of the CO Strategic Note through clustering the two projects7. The International Evaluation Consultant (Team Lead) will lead and collaborate with a team composed of one National Evaluator and one National Gender Specialist/Coordinator, who will be hired through separate procedures.

7 The Cluster Evaluation will coincide with the mid-term evaluation period of the project “Decentralisation and Law Enforcement Reforms: Transformative approaches to Gender Equality and Women’s Empowerment in Ukraine” funded by the Government of Denmark and with the final evaluation period of the project “Building democratic, peaceful and gender equal society in Ukraine” funded by the Government of Norway.
II. Scope of Work/Duties and Responsibilities

Evaluation Approach, Purpose, Objectives and Use

The Cluster Evaluation will assess the progress made by the assessed interventions towards the achievement of the outcomes and goals set under the CO’s Strategic Note, analyze the results achieved and challenges encountered, adjust the implementation modalities as needed and recommend any modifications to the approaches for the projects' components for the remaining implementation period of the SN. The evaluation will focus on two projects - “Building democratic, peaceful and gender equal society in Ukraine” and “Decentralisation and Law Enforcement Reforms: Transformative approaches to Gender Equality and Women’s Empowerment in Ukraine”.

Specifically, the objectives of this Cluster Evaluation are to:

- Analyse and review the Theory of Change and key assumptions made in light of the current context.
- Analyse the relevance of the UN Women’s approach in the implementation of the initiatives at the national, regional and local levels against the outcomes of the UN Women Strategic Note;
- Assess effectiveness of the projects’ intervention on the target regions and communities;
- Assess organizational efficiency and coordination mechanisms in progressing towards the achievement of the projects’ results as defined in the intervention;
- Analyse and harvest any outcomes towards transformative gender changes at i) individual level and ii) systemic level;
- Assess the intended sustainability of the results and the intervention in advancing gender equality in the regions and communities;
- Identify and document lessons learned, good practices and innovations, success stories and challenges to inform future work of UN Women in the areas of Governance and Participation; Elimination of Violence against Women and Girls (EVAWG); and Women, Peace and Security (WPS);
- Identify strategies for replication and up-scaling of the identified best practices of the interventions during the implementation of the remaining period of the Ukraine’s CO SN.

The findings of the Cluster Evaluation are expected to contribute to effective programming, organizational learning and accountability.

Targeted users of the evaluation are the management and staff of UN Women CO in Ukraine, Government of Norway and Government of Denmark (projects’ donors), the responsible parties, and the government counterparts at local and national levels, CSOs, and other UN agencies, donor community and development partners in Ukraine, and the project beneficiaries. The evaluation should also provide specific recommendations as to the priority areas that should be considered to inform future programming in this area in Ukraine. This would include interventions that require continued support, successful interventions for expansion, and recommendations on prioritizing interventions to maximize impact in the strategic areas to be evaluated. It should also define recommendations to improve project management and maximize ownership by partners. The information generated by the evaluation will moreover be used to engage policy makers and other stakeholders at local, national and regional levels in evidence-based policy dialogues and to advocate for gender-responsive strategies, Women, Peace and Security localization, prevention of Gender-Based Violence, and to inform national reforms with a particular focus on gender equality, human rights, and Women, Peace and Security at local, national and regional levels.
